

Barton (Wychnor)

| General Information | |
|---|--|
| Parish | Wychnor Barton under Needwood |
| Area (hectares) | 87 |
| Developer | Hanson Quarry Products |
| Mineral development details | |
| Mineral type(s) | Sand and Gravels |
| Geological association | River Gravels |
| Indicated resources (million tonnes) | 7 |
| Anticipated output (tonnes per annum) | 550,000 |
| Anticipated duration of mineral operations | 12 |
| Intended extension to existing quarry | Yes |
| Location for processing/ utilisation | Barton Quarry |
| Products | Concrete and Concrete Products |
| Mode of transport for mineral haulage | Road |
| Previous site allocation in MLP | Yes |
| Environment | |
| Flood zone | River bank zone, Floodzone 2 and 3 |
| Groundwater protection zone | N/A |
| Nearest international designated ecological site | SAC – 782 metres away (River Mease) |
| National ecological site within 2 kilometres of site | N/A |
| Local features of ecological/ geological interest within 500 metres | SBI– 33 metres away (Catholme Sand and Gravel Pits) |
| Biodiversity Impact | 65 metres away (Coastal and floodplain grazing marsh) |
| Features of archaeological interest within 500 metres | HER – number of feature within site |
| Features of historic building conservation interest within 500 metres | LB – 22 metres away (Stable and Hayloft, Wychnor Bridges Farm; Grade 2) CA – 35 metres away (Trent and Mersey Canal) SM –within site (Circular enclosures) |
| Public open space | N/A |
| Green Belt | No |
| Does the site include “best & most versatile” agricultural land? | Yes |
| Reclamation issues | |
| Can the site be restored without the need to backfill with waste materials brought onto the site? | Yes |
| Does the site involve working below the water table? | Yes |
| Possible afteruse based on known local area initiative | Official National Forest On Trent initiative Staffordshire Washlands |
| Proposed potential afteruse | No information |
| Updated: 11/02/2009 | Revision: 1.1 |

" This map is reproduced from Ordnance Survey material with the permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of the controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office (c) Crown Copyright. Unauthorised reproduction infringes Crown Copyright and may lead to prosecution or civil proceedings. Staffordshire County Council. LA076856.2003 "

Staffordshire
County Council

Development Control Unit,
Development Services,
Riverway, Stafford, ST16 3TJ
Telephone (01785) 223121
Fax (01785) 211279

MINERALS CORE STRATEGY
Strategic Site Proposal -
Barton (Wychnor), East of Alrewas
Site Proposer- Hanson Quarry Products

Date : 11/02/2009

O. S.
Grid Ref : SK 191 161

Scale : 1:15000

File : Revision 1.1

Not To Scale