

Opportunist Burglaries

There have been a number of opportunist burglaries reported over recent weeks where the offender has gained entry through insecure doors and windows.

Neighbourhood Watch are warning people to be on their guard and to keep doors and windows locked at all times, not just when they are out.

One of the reports is of an offender climbing in through an open first floor window whilst the resident was at home. The offender was disturbed and made off with a rucksack.

Please inform your neighbours and be wary of strangers approaching the rear of any properties. You are advised to report anything suspicious to the police immediately.
