

Council Tax Scammers

Staffordshire Moorlands District Council is warning residents of scammers telephoning to inform them they are due a rent or council tax rebate. The scammers ask the resident for their bank account details in order to credit the rebate to their account.

If you receive such a call hang up and dial the number on your council tax or rent bill to check if you are due a rebate.

Trading Standards want residents from all areas of Staffordshire to be aware of this scam as it could be duplicated in other areas. Please inform you family, friends and neighbours.
