I. INTRODUCTION

The information below is applicable to all schools including specials.

Pupils generally complete Key Stage Four at the end of Year 11. The majority of these pupils will have been 15 at the start of the academic year; however some schools will have pupils that are younger or older than 15 in Year 11. The results of these younger/older pupils will be reported alongside the other pupils in the year if the pupil concerned has completed the Key Stage.

In addition to GCSE and equivalent qualifications, entry level qualifications, graded examinations such as music and dance as well as AS levels taken early are all counted towards a school's results. A-levels taken early are not counted towards a school's Key Stage Four results.

The variety of qualifications and courses available to pupils at Key Stage Four is vast. Prior to 2004 published results only included the results of GCSEs and GNVQs but the Qualifications and Curriculum Development Agency (QCDA) have since assigned point values to all qualifications registered on the approved QCDA list. This has allowed different types of qualifications to be reported on an equitable basis.

2018 Reporting Changes

In 2016/17 changes were implemented to the grading scheme for GCSEs in English Language, English Literature and Mathematics. Rather than the traditional A* - G grades, GCSEs were graded 9 to 1, with 9 being the top grade. A further 20 GCSEs were added to this grading system in 2018 and most others will follow in 2019.

Caution should be applied when comparing headline measures between 2016 and 2018. Attainment 8 scores over this period have been calculated using a slightly different point score scale each year due to the gradual introduction of the new graded GCSEs. There is no alternative comparator measure so when making year-on-year comparisons, some caution should be applied.

From 2018 onwards, Progress 8 scores have been 'adjusted' to take account of a small number of cases where pupils can have extremely negative scores that disproportionately affect overall results. The impact of these changes is very minimal, but should be considered when comparing 2016 and 2017 Progress 8 results to 2018 scores.

2. GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Progress 8

Progress 8 was introduced in 2016 (and 2015 for schools that chose to opt in early). Its aim is to capture the progress a pupil makes from the end of primary school to the end of secondary school. It is a type of value added measure, which means that pupils' results are compared to the actual achievements of other pupils nationally with similar prior attainment.

Attainment 8

Attainment 8 measures the attainment of a pupil across eight qualifications including mathematics (double weighted) and English (double weighted), three further qualifications that count in the English Baccalaureate (EBacc) measure, and three further qualifications that can be GCSE qualifications (including EBacc subjects) or any other non-GCSE qualifications on the Department for Education (DfE) approved list. Each individual grade a pupil achieves is assigned a point score, which is then used to calculate a pupil's Attainment 8 score.

Attainment in English and Maths (grade 5 or above)

From 2017, this measure looks at the percentage of pupils achieving a grade 5 or above in both English and maths. Pupils can achieve the English component of this with a grade 5 or above in English Language or Literature. There is no requirement to sit both exams.

English Baccalaureate (Entries and APS)

The English Baccalaureate is not a qualification but instead it recognises students' achievements across a core of selected academic subjects, namely, English, maths, science, a language, and history or geography. In 2018, the headline English Baccalaureate achievement changed to an Average Point Score (APS), a school's EBacc APS is calculated by adding together the EBacc average point score for all pupils at the end of key stage 4 and dividing the number of pupils in the group. The entry measure relates to the proportion of pupils entered into each of the necessary English Baccalaureate components.

Floor Standard

The floor standard for a school is the minimum standard for pupil achievement and/or progress that the Government expects schools to obtain. Floor standards do not apply to special schools, independent schools, pupil referral units, alternative provision or hospital schools. Schools will be excluded from a Progress 8 floor standard in a particular year where they have fewer than six pupils at the end of Key Stage 4, or where less than 50% of pupils have Key Stage 2 assessments that can be used as prior attainment in the calculations of Progress 8.

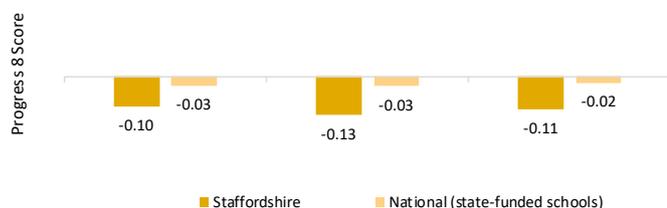

A school will be below the floor standard if its Progress 8 score is below -0.5, unless the upper confidence interval is greater than 0. A Progress 8 score of -0.5 indicates that the average achievement of a school's pupils is approximately half a grade worse per subject than other pupils with the same prior attainment.
