

Your Say

Your

Say:

Welcome

the

Your

Book.

This

will

tell

you

how

you can

have

a

if

you

are

sad

or unhappy.

It

will

also

tell

you

about

how

you

can help

decide

how

services

are

run

for young people.

There

may be

times

when

you

not

happy

about

how

you

have been treated

or

services

trying

help

you.

If

you

are

you

could talk to someone

you

trust

like

your

Teacher

or

Social Worker.

Who

else

do

you

think

you

could

go to

if

you

need

help?

If you are really unhappy you can make something called a "complaint". This means that you can ask someone else to try and sort your problem out.

Staffordshire County Council has a special team of people

you can

if something

has gone

wrong.

team

if

something

well.

The Children's & Young People's Voice Project

helps young people in care and those receiving short breaks to have a say about how services are run for them. We run activities all over Staffordshire. To find out what's going on in your area ring 01785

253878.

have

any questions

you

can

ask

your

social worker?
