Code of Conduct for Photography and Video - Staffordshire County Council

We will always store any still or moving images of you, or anyone for whom you have responsibility, safely. We will only use them in specific projects for which we have your written consent. We may also share images with partner agencies such as other councils, who must conform to the same legislation.

Managing your consent

You can withdraw your consent for us to use images or footage of yourself, or anyone for whom you have responsibility, such as a child or vulnerable adult, at any time.

Either call 0300 111 8000 and ask for Communications or email communications@staffordshire.gov.uk

Once you tell us that you withdraw consent, we will work with you to ensure that all relevant individual photos, or sets of photos, and footage are deleted from our systems. For instances where images are used in printed materials, such as leaflets/magazines, it will not be possible for consent to be withdrawn. However, we will ensure your image is not used for any future publications.

In all circumstances we will:

- Never publish photos or footage of you where we do not have your written consent.
- Never present you in a manner likely to cause embarrassment or offence.
- Never reveal your personal details such as age, address or telephone number within a photo or footage. In very rare circumstances where this would be useful, we will discuss it with you and ask for your written consent.
- Keep photos and footage of you on our system for a maximum of 2 years. After 2 years we will delete them.
- Retain the copyright to all photos and footage taken during a photoshoot.

In addition when using photos or footage of children under 16yo we will:

- Always ensure that permission has been given directly in writing by the child's parents, carers or legal guardians.
- In the case of photos or footage taken within a school, we will ensure that the school's existing parental consent system states that any images might also be used by Staffordshire County Council.
- Not use images of children to illustrate child protection issues relating to the Fostering and Adoption service or Youth Offending Service. In very rare circumstances where this would be useful, we will contact their parents or guardians to discuss and ask for written consent.

When using photos or footage of vulnerable adults we will:

- Always ensure that written permission has been granted by their care giver or guardian.
- Not use their images to illustrate subjects such as the abuse of older people. In very rare circumstances where this would be useful, we will contact their primary care giver to discuss and ask for written consent.
