the easy way to get around the

Staffordshire Moorlands
without a car

BUXTON • LEEK • ASHBOURNE • ILAM • DOVEDALE
HARTINGTON • WARSLOW
and villages inbetween

Is brought to you by Staffordshire County Council

Moorlands Connect is a great way to get out and about, to go to see friends or relatives in other villages without using your car. You can use it to go to the doctor's surgery in Hartington or just out for a pub lunch.

If you have never used the Moorlands Connect service before, you will need to register to use the service by calling the booking line number 01335 342951

There are 2 buses that operate in the Moorlands area, one of the buses offers a Dial a Ride service to take you from your home address (wherever possible) to your destination or as close as possible. For all Dial a Ride journeys you must book ahead, you can book 7 days in advance or on the day but you must give 2 hours notice prior to your journey time. Please remember the Dial a Ride option is on a first come first served basis.

Alternatively from the 5th October 2015, you can just hop on the timetabled service that is scheduled to make regular trips at fixed times into Ashbourne, Buxton and Leek without booking. Please see timetables in the leaflet.
